

Han, Seong Ok

Principal researcher
Energy Materials Laboratory
Korea Institute of Energy Research
152, Gajeong-ro, Yuseong-gu, 34129,
Daejeon, Korea
Telephone: 82-42-860-3149
E-mail: sohan@kier.re.kr

EDUCATION

- 1983 Ewha Womans University, Chemistry, B.S.
- 1985 Ewha Womans University, Chemistry, M.S.
- 1994 Ewha Womans University, Chemistry, Ph.D.

While Dr. Han is working at the Korea Institute of Energy Research, she has successfully performed national research and development projects since 1985. She has accomplishments of 95 papers, registered 85 patents, and 3 books (chapter) regarding in developing of energy-saving and environmentally friendly materials. Dr. Han has various experiences and successful results of working in policy activities, budget reviews for national science and technology R&D regarding of activities in Nano Convergent Expert Committee. She served as the director of Green Technology Team of National Research Foundation, Korea and involved in committee member of National Science and Technology Council, Country-led Expert Committee. For 2 years from September 1, 2011, Dr. Han has contributed in environmental business sector and business response to climate change, Global Frontier Project, 21st Century Frontier Project, Marine Bio Business Education, Science and Technology Research and Development enforcement of such expenses that contribute, operations, management and planning of business-related research and development, evaluation, and policy establishment as a director of Green Technology Team of National Research Foundation. She has also contributed forming international network, exchanging information while she was serving as President of Korea Woman Scientists and Engineers (KWSE).